

North Carolina-The Old North State Newspaper Scavenger Hunt

Using the Hickory Daily Record, find as many as you can of the items below in today's newspaper. Circle and number the items in your newspaper or write down the section and page where you found each item.

1. A story or photo about the North Carolina city or town where the Hickory Daily Record is published
2. The weather forecast for Hickory
3. A map of North Carolina
4. The name of the state capital
5. A story about state government
6. The name of a state official (examples: governor, member of Council of State or Cabinet, member of NC Senate of Legislature or State School Board member)
7. A story about a local sports team
8. A story about one of North Carolina's college sports teams
9. A story about one of North Carolina's professional sports teams
10. A story about a natural resource or environmental concern
11. A story about a business in the community served by the Hickory Daily Record or about the economy of the state
12. A classified ad for a job available in the town or city served by the Hickory Daily Record.
13. Something for sale that was produced in North Carolina
14. A place in North Carolina you'd like to visit (look in Wednesday's Record)
15. An event important in North Carolina's history or the history of Hickory.
16. A concern or problem that North Carolina faces.
17. An opinion expressed by a citizen of North Carolina published in the Letters to the Editor section
18. A North Carolinian who acts on his or her beliefs or shows no pretense (North Carolina's motto is "To be rather than to seem.")

Bonus: Find a picture of one of the symbols of North Carolina. Cut it out and paste it here. To find out about the symbols, visit:

www.secretary.state.nc.us/kidspg/symbols.htm

NC contributions made by:

Sandra Cook, NC Press Foundation, Newspapers in Education